

GUIDELINES TO SUBMIT A PROPOSAL FOR A TRAVEL GRANT

Through its Peer-to-Peer Travel Grant Programme, the Ecumenical Women's Initiative (EWI) looks to enable grassroots women's organisations to network, exchange knowledge and gain insights into examples of good practice with the aim of ensuring their continued development and sustainability, as well as encouraging joint activism at local, national and/or regional level.

Who can apply?

Civil society organisations who have received at least one grant from EWI and have successfully completed all of their obligations as stated in their EWI contract.

Who can be visited?

Civil society organisations and institutions registered in Croatia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Kosovo, North Macedonia, Montenegro and Serbia (EWI geographical region). All visits planned for the study visit should be arranged and confirmed BEFORE submitting a proposal. For this reason, it is necessary to submit a copy of a document (VISIT AGREEMENT) in which it will be clearly stated which organisation(s)/institution(s) are to be visited, in what time period and with which expected results. This document must be signed and stamped by the person authorised to represent the organisation conducting the study visit and the organisation/institution you intend to visit.

Maximum amount to be awarded per travel grant: 1,500 EUR

Implementation period: 15.3.2026 - 15.7 2026

EWI covers the costs of transportation, food, and accommodation of participants.

The principle of good financial management should be applied to the selection of transport, accommodation and/or planning of any other expenses. EWI will not impose on its project partners which transport or accommodation they should choose. It relies on their wisdom and commitment to the common goal of spending resources efficiently and economically, in order to achieve the best possible result.

NOTE: Funds for the implementation of the support will be transferred no earlier than 30 days before the start date of the study trip as specified in the application form.
